

electricbackroom and countertext electricbackroom constitutes a self-determining vision of creativity, functioning as independent makers and promoter of artistic aspiration.

a creative intervention founded by artists Nigel Slight and David Rogers, electricbackroom is committed to artists and work that reflect the complexities of our diverse and ever evolving culture. the work of electricbackroom artists is becoming recognized for its inventive responses to a range of themes that defy simplistic categorization. electricbackroom is gaining a reputation for curatorial originality and innovative programming.

countertext is a collection of transmedia installations and events to complement the bridport open book festival including painting, photography, sculpture, video, sound and performance, curated by david rogers and nigel slight.

this year there will also be special screenings at PVA MediaLab, in Bridport, of new works by Justin Bennett (NL), Duncan Whitley (London) and Joe Stevens (Weymouth). and a thursday evening talk by Tess Ormrod (Hereford) and Nigel Slight (Dorset) – details and times overleaf.
